THE GRAND ARMY

Passing Away—Soon Will Be But a Memory of the Past

Thirty years ago the Grand Army of the Republic was an organization with a membership of over 750,000. During the intervening time 600,000 have answered roll call and passed over the Great Divide, as the lamented and gallant "Stonewall" Jackson expressed it, "are testing 'neath the shade of the trees on the other shore."

Last year the number of deaths of Civil War Veterans was officially placed at 40,000. In a few more years of the host marshalled during the years '60-'65 will all have been called "Up Yonder."

The latest of notable members who have joined the "silent majority," is that of Major Austin Cushman, who died yesterday in Boston. An account which says—

"In the midst of festivities in Masonic Temple during ladies' night of the DeMolay Commandery, Knights Templar, Major Austin Cushman, organizer and first Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic and Private Secretary to Millard Fillmore, President of the United States, was stricken with heart disease and died shortly before midnight."

To bring the matter home more clearly one has only to recall in his own mind the number that are missed of those who were wont only a few years ago to gather around the Camp Fires of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, of this city, who now peacefully sleep in our beautiful City of the Dead.

Of the many only a few remain, and soon they too will have answered taps and light out.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

Mr. Michael Sweeney Walked in Front C. and O. Train No. 3 Last Night

Hole Knocked In His Head, His Breast Caved In, From Which He Died Shortly Afterwards

Another unfortunate victim has been added to the long list who have forfeited and lost their lives by using the C. and O. track as a foot path.

Last night about 6:15 Michael Sweeney was struck by No. 3, Westbound Fast Flyer, and injured in such a manner that he died within less than two hours.

Had he been duly sober he might be living today.

Mr. Sweeney had just finished eating a hearty supper at Kirk's restaurant at the corner of Front and Market streets, and after remarking to an attaché of the house how he had enjoyed his meal, stepped out onto the pavement and seemingly walked deliberately in front of the approaching train at the Market street approach of the viaduct.

The train was stopped and the injured man taken aboard and carried to the C. and O. depot where he received attention from the Company's surgeon, Dr. John A. Reed, assisted by Drs. Yazell and Brand.

He was then conveyed to his home in the Fleming pike, where he died shortly thereafter.

He was crushed about the breast and a hole knocked in his head.

The deceased was at the time of his death an employee of the Western and Southern Insurance Company, and was 51 years old.

He was quiet and inoffensive, and was at one time a man of means.

He owns his own home on the Fleming pike.

He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his untimely taking off.

This is another instance in which the railroad is blameless for the accident.

Low water prices at Gerbrich's.

The Fleming County Grand Jury returned twelve indictments.

Of three marriage licenses granted the past week at Flemingsburg, one of the brides was 16 years of age, another 17, and the third 18.

In the Circuit Court at Mt. Sterling a few days ago, James Terry of Nicholas county was found guilty of dog stealing and fined $10 and costs. The case has been in Court over two years, being continued eight times. It was alleged that Terry stole a collie dog from Clarence White, a young farmer, while driving past White's farm. The dog was worth about $25, and was recovered by the owner. While the verdict looks small, the total costs in the case, including Attorneys' fees, will bring the total up about $400, or sixteen times as much as the canine was worth.

THAT WE ARE OFFERING SUITS AND OVERCOATS AT $8.50 and $12.50

Respectively, that are great values is evidenced by the fact that notwithstanding that this is generally the dull-est clothing season in the entire year, we are selling twice as many goods this January than we sold last January. Our windows are not large enough to display all of the Suits and Overcoats that we sell at above quoted prices. Suppose you take a few minutes time and come in and be shown the entire line. Needless to tell you on paper what they are. You want to be shown, which we will cheerfully do.

THE little poetic skit which was printed in Monday's LEDGER under the Ghoat, was the product of the pen of one of Maysville's distinguished men. The moral of the verses was directed against The Lexington Herald's "School for Scandal" now raging in the Bluegrass Capitol.

By orders from the Government Mrs. CASIE L. CHADWICK, the notorious female forger and swindler is to be transferred from the Ohio Penitentiary to the Government Prison at Moundsville, W. Va., where she will complete her ten-year-sentence for the ruin wrought by her frenzied financial methods. Mrs. CHADWICK is now transformed from an aristocratic lady plumed with all the gorgeous finery that wealth could purchase, into a wan, sunken-faced woman broken in spirit and body. The way of the transgressor is hard.

THE report of the tilt between President ROOSEVELT and Senator FORAKER at the Gridiron Club dinner in Washington Saturday night has no doubt been greatly garbled and exaggerated by the press reports. The President of the club says the reports are false and misleading. What happened was that the President read from the club's joke book the line: 'All coons look alike to me,' which appeared under a cartoon. Senator FORAKER quoted it, and then added that all white persons looked alike to him and went on with his speech.

GOOD MORNING! How would you like to be a Talesman?

THE peaceful and bloodless conquest of Cuba by the United States is one of the greatest coups and diplomatic victories ever won by this government. It has been the unbroken policy of this country that when the Stars and Stripes have once been planted on any territory never to haul down the Flag. Only once in the history of our country has this policy been broken and that was under the Democratic administration of GROVER CLEVELAND when he struck the National colors over Hawaii and turned over affairs to the Negro monarchy of Queen Lil.

PROFESSOR C. U. OLDRIEVE, who is undertaking the sprint of walking on the water from Cincinnati to New Orleans chose a favorable time for his little promenade. The Ohio and Mississippi rivers are both bank full, therefore OLDRIEVE has a broad and magnificent race course, a fair field and no competitors to foul him. His wife, who is champion oarswoman of the world, keeps near him in a skiff and J. W. WEATHERINGTON of Louisville, ARTHUR JONES and U. F. MAIDEN accompany him with a launch. WEATHERINGTON has wagered ED. WILLIAMS of Boston, $5,000 that OLDRIEVE will succeed. OLDRIEVE is now below Memphis.

THANKFUL

To my many friends and the public generally who have in the past extended to me such a liberal share of their patronage, which has helped so materially in making my business career in Maysville such a success: I want to assure all that I fully appreciate what they have done for me, and promise that I shall, by renewed efforts, endeavor to retain the confidence of the public by pursuing the same course of fair dealing and polite attention in the future as in the past and selling the very best goods at the most reasonable prices.

My stock is now the largest and most varied it has ever been my pleasure to offer to the public, consisting of every article in the Staple and Fancy Grocery line. These goods are fresh and new and of the very best quality. My last shipment of New Crop Open Kettle Molasses is now in and they are strictly fancy, and in spite of the fact that prices on these goods have materially advanced I am still selling them at the very low price of 50c per gallon. My stock of CANNED GOODS is unusually large and the quality of the very best.

The demand for PERFECTION FLOUR is rapidly growing because it is beyond a doubt the very best Flour sold in Maysville or that can be made. It has no superior anywhere. The run on my fine Blended Coffee has been enormous and is constantly increasing. I am still selling these fine goods at 15c, 20c and 25c per pound, and if you want a strictly fancy high grade Mocha and Java, the finest that can be produced, don't fail to call for the famous "Harrington Hall" steel cut, sold only in one-pound airtight tins at 35c per pound. A fresh supply of fall catch shad-cracker just in. If you want something extra try one of my fancy Blister Mosa, heads and tails off.

A big invoice of very fine Premium Chinaware just in, a sample of which may be seen in my warehouse window. These goods I give to my CASH customers in redeeming tickets given out with their cash purchases. Until further notice DOUBLE TICKETS will be given with each cash purchase on SATURDAYS. By taking advantage of this proposition the purchaser will very soon accumulate enough tickets to secure a fine set of china FREE OF COST.

I buy strictly fancy Table Butter, Fresh Eggs and Country Produce generally, for which I pay cash or trade at lowest cash prices. I want every one to come and see me; always welcome. If you don't want to buy it will be a pleasure for me to show you the nicest, the cleanest and the best kept store in Northeastern Kentucky. Thanking all again, I am most sincerely,

R. B. LOVELL,

Nor Was His Neck Rubbed.

The plaintiff's lawyer in the breach of promise case thought he would make life a burden to the unfortunate young man who was the unwilling defendant.

"Do you mean to say," he asked, after a number of embarrassing questions, "that after you had been absent for an entire month you did not kiss the plaintiff, to whom you were engaged to be married, when you first saw her on your return?"

"I do," responded the defendant, firmly.

"Will you make that statement to the jury?"

"Certainly, if necessary."

"Do you think that they would believe you?"

"One of them would, I know."

"Ah, indeed! And why should he, pray?"

"Because he was present when I first saw her. He was at the gate when I rode up, and she stuck her head out of the second-story window and I said to her, 'How d'ye do?' and called out I'd be back to supper in half an hour. I'm no giraffe," and everybody smiled except the lawyer.

Mistake of a College Girl.

Charles Dana Hazen, head of the history department of Smith college, had excused one of his pupils from recitation on account of sickness. Shortly after the recitation hour the professor had occasion to pass through the main street of Northampton, and, much to his surprise, saw his excused student coming from the opposite direction.

This was a critical moment for the college girl, who took in the situation with a glance. Something must be done at once to escape his notice. The book store nearby was her only resort, and if she could have reached it on time she would have been all right. In her excited state of mind she got into a saloon just one door from her intended hiding place. On discovering her mistake she rushed into the street and into the arms of the professor.

Beats the Story Books.

For about 30 years Joseph Glover Southmay put off what he might have done any day. Consequently he has just reappeared at Middletown, Conn., after an absence of 36 years. Funeral services were held for him a generation ago, when he was believed to have been lost at sea. The amazing part of the story is that Southmay for 30 years has been running a farm a little more than 20 miles from Middletown. There is room enough in this world, it appears, unless a man is really trying to hide.

TOBACCO FAIR

Get Ready at Once to Extend Welcome to Visitors

This annual event is looked forward to from one year until another, so that people, not only in Maysville, but throughout Northeastern Kentucky and a large part of Ohio, consider it a fixed event.

Many things date from the Tobacco Fair. It certainly is the largest, most representative gathering of farmers and business men that ever assembled in Maysville, or in any other city within fifty miles of this place. The people of Maysville, especially, should take a pride in perpetuating the Tobacco Fair and make it better each year.

From present indications, there will be the largest and best exhibit of tobacco, corn, wheat and potatoes that has ever been shown. The railroads are arranging to give reduced rates from all points. Write your friends to come. The merchants of Maysville should at once become enthusiastic and correspond with their friends among the farmers urging them to be present on that occasion with exhibits. The matter of doing business on that day should be secondary; welcome the visitors and make them feel that we are glad to have them whether they do business with us or not.

The Farmers Institute to be held on the 22d and the morning of the 23d will bring to our city some of the noted lecturers upon subjects which should interest every farmer. Consequently, we expect a large crowd from Mason and surrounding counties. Mr. Joe Wing of Ohio, who has a National reputation as a producer of alfalfa, is expected to be here and several others who are capable of instructing on live stock breeding. These lectures will be free. Coming at this season of the year, when the farmer is at leisure, he will feel that it will be time well spent getting information how to better his crops and secure a much larger yield for the same amount of labor expended.

Good music will be a feature of each day's entertainment and the Washington Opera-house should be filled with interested listeners, both the 22d and 23d. Owing to lack of space to accommodate the crowd which we expect to have Saturday afternoon, the ladies will not be expected to occupy seats. They will be very welcome to attend the exercises on Friday and on Saturday morning. Large delegations will be here from Cincinnati, Louisville, Lexington and other points.

The premiums to be paid are of such a liberal nature that the managers are now receiving letters from remote counties making inquiries with reference to exhibits. Ye men of Maysville, who are progressive and wish to sustain our reputation for hospitality, should get busy and boom the Eighth Annual Tobacco Fair.

General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, contemplates two visits to the United States during the present year.

Nearly 100 miners have been entombed by an explosion in the Stewart mines in Fayette county, W. Va. Rescue parties are at work.

The members from the farming districts outvoted those from the city and a provision in the Agricultural Bill providing for the usual free distribution of seeds went through Congress with a rush.

WYANDOTTE TRIBE, I. O. B. M.
Regular Council of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3 this evening at 7:30. Chiefs will please take notice and attend same. WILLIAM TOLLE, Sachem, W. F. Thomas, C. of R.

Cornelius Hill, the oldest of the Oneida Indian Chiefs, is dead on the reservation in Wisconsin at the age of 75.

Fire which destroyed a section of the Baldwin Locomotive Works at Philadelphia caused damage estimated at $1,000,000.

The gage marks 17.1 and falling.

Towboats are hurrying home with empties.

Charles W. Oldrieve, walking on the water from Cincinnati to New Orleans, has passed Vicksburg.

The Winifrede is still moored to the ice piers with her tow of empties, the ice being too heavy to venture out on her upward trip.

The War Department has granted certain capitalists of Parkersburg, W. Va., permission to build a highway bridge across the Ohio river at that point.

Rivermen have to hustle when the river rises and again when the water is falling. Much damage is done yearly by river craft being caught by falling water.

Pilots declare that under present conditions of high water the most dangerous obstacles to navigation are the cables stretching over the Ohio river at various ferries and dams. The Raymond Hornor was wrecked by a cable near Parkersburg last October with fatal results. Since then rivermen have been agitating the marking of the river channel by lights in these cables, and in some cases the lights are being placed on the cables every eight.

WITH THE FESTIVE GRIPPE.

Written by One Who Evidently Has "Been There."

The grippie is the most vicious of diseases. It begins in the night and sleeps not by day. Nor will it let its victim sleep. Where it comes from is not known, but everyone is aware when it gets there, that it has come to stay. It takes off its things and puts its trunk in your best room. It seems to be on an indefinite leave of absence from home to make life as uncomfortable for its host as possible. It puts its feet on your best furniture, uses your best linen towels to clean its shoes, and takes especial delight in leaving its dirty linen about for you to pick up. It assaults you from the front and from the rear. It pounds away at your head until you can stand it no longer; it runs up and down your spinal column; puts your legs out of commission and destroys your appetite. The grippie is the most unfeeling and thoughtless of all diseases. Where some diseases are content with affecting certain organs or certain portions of the human frame, and letting it go at that, the grippie comes in and lays siege to the entire system of human economy. It knows no feelings of decency or consideration. It laughs you to scorn, and when you are alone it mocks your groaning. Of all diseases spare me from the grippie.—Detroit Free Press.

Smart Young Man Had Less Fun Than He Anticipated.

Whoever is acquainted in the vicinity of St. Johnsbury, Vt., knows of Orville Lawrence, of whom many stories are told like the following:

Mr. Lawrence was driving up to the St. Johnsbury house with a little fox terrier sitting at his side. A sporty young drummer was sitting on the piazza smoking a cigar in company with some friends, and he resolved to have some fun at the expense of Mr. Lawrence.

"Sir, how much will you sell that dog for?" I should like it very much for my wife, who loves pups."

"Well," said the old man, "you had better take it, and then your wife will have two."

Origin of the "Broad Arrow."
The unmistakable "broad arrow," of which the escaping Gloucester convicts naturally tried to rid themselves as soon as possible, has no inherent special significance, but is simply the sign of state ownership on the prison clothes. Says the London Chronicle: How this arrow came to be a royal mark is quite uncertain. The story that it was taken from the arms of Henry Viscount Sydney, who was master general of ordnance at the end of

Department of our store. By giving special attention to the most minute details we turn out Harness whose longevity rivals that of the Deacon's wonderful one-horse shay, which, as you all know, was so wonderfully constructed that it did not wear out in any one particular place, but, after being used for one hundred years to the minute, went to pieces all at once. Our workmen, being skilled at their work, know, as did the Deacon, that "This mighty plain that the waken's place must stand the strainin', 'n the way 't fix it, uz I maintain 'is only jes' to make that place uz strong uz the rest." We can give you the names of some of our customers to whom we sold work harness when we first went into business, and which is still as good as new. WOMEN'S WOES.

Maysville Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to their duties in spite of constantly aching backs, headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains, they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know. Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 22 East Fourth street, Maysville, Ky., says: "The prompt and thorough action of Doan's Kidney Pills should recommend them to everyone suffering from backache or kidney troubles. I have known the value of this remedy for several years. Its use in my case proved to me that it is a reliable kidney cure and cannot be excelled for backache or weakness of the kidneys. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills before and I should advise every sufferer to get a supply and try them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
